

DEPARTMENT OF THEATRE AUDITIONS

boom

by Peter Nachtrieb
directed by Augustine Ripa

OPEN CALL Tuesday, January 26th
Callbacks Wednesday, January 27th

Performs February 26 thru March 5, 2016

ALL STUDENTS ELIGIBLE

"Sex to Change the Course of the World"—Comedy that celebrates the resilience of life against all odds!

A grad student's online personal ad lures a mysterious journalism student to his subterranean research lab under the pretense of a weekend of "no strings attached" sex. But when a major global catastrophic event strikes the planet, their date takes on evolutionary significance and the fate of humanity hangs in the balance. And who is that woman at the controls in this wacky museum?

CHARACTERS

Barbara	museum operator, played by man or woman—wacky-good
Jules (male)	slightly nerdy grad student—wants to save the world
Jo (female)	looking for meaning in life; a journalism undergrad—sassy

TO AUDITION

SIGN UP for a time to audition on the sheet posted the theatre office, 301 Zoellner. Auditions will consist of reading from the script and perhaps some improvisation.

Perusal copies of the script may be requested from dal5@lehigh.edu or ar02@lehigh.edu

Students cast are eligible to enroll in Theatre 35, Performance (2cr).

QUESTIONS?—NEED MORE INFORMATION?...Ask the director, Gus...
Augustine Ripa, ar02@lehigh.edu. Office 303, Zoellner. Extension 84595.